CONTINENTAL AIRLINES REPORTS NOVEMBER 2008 OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

HOUSTON, Dec. 1, 2008 – Continental Airlines (NYSE: CAL) today reported a November consolidated (mainline plus regional) load factor of 77.3 percent, 2.8 points below the November 2007 consolidated load factor, and a mainline load factor of 77.8 percent, 2.6 points below the November 2007 mainline load factor. In addition, the carrier reported a domestic mainline November load factor of 80.6 percent, 2.5 points below the November 2007 domestic mainline load factor, and an international mainline load factor of 75.0 percent, 2.4 points below November 2007.

During the month, Continental recorded a U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) on-time arrival rate of 80.8 percent and a mainline segment completion factor of 99.9 percent.

In November 2008, Continental flew 6.6 billion consolidated revenue passenger miles (RPMs) and 8.5 billion consolidated available seat miles (ASMs), resulting in a consolidated traffic decrease of 10.5 percent and a capacity decrease of 7.3 percent as compared to November 2007. In November 2008, Continental flew 5.9 billion mainline RPMs and 7.5 billion mainline ASMs, resulting in a mainline traffic decrease of 10.7 percent and a mainline capacity decrease of 7.8 percent as compared to November 2007. Domestic mainline traffic was 3.1 billion RPMs in November 2008, down 15.0 percent from November 2007, and domestic mainline capacity was 3.8 billion ASMs, down 12.4 percent from November 2007.

For November 2008, consolidated passenger revenue per available seat mile (RASM) is estimated to have increased between 1.0 and 2.0 percent compared to November 2007, while mainline passenger RASM is estimated to have increased between 2.0 and 3.0 percent compared to November 2007. Mainline domestic RASM for November 2008 is estimated to be between flat and up 1.0 percent compared to November 2007.

For October 2008, consolidated passenger RASM increased 9.5 percent compared to October 2007, while mainline passenger RASM increased 10.4 percent compared to October 2007.

Continental's regional operations had a November load factor of 73.1 percent, 4.6 points below the November 2007 regional load factor. Regional RPMs were 715.0 million and regional ASMs were 977.5 million in November 2008, resulting in a traffic decrease of 8.9 percent and a capacity decrease of 3.2 percent versus November 2007.

Continental Airlines is the world's fifth largest airline. Continental, together with Continental Express and Continental Connection, has more than 2,500 daily departures throughout the Americas, Europe and Asia, serving 134 domestic and 131 international destinations. More than 675 additional points are served via alliance partners. With more than 43,000 employees, Continental has hubs serving New York, Houston, Cleveland and Guam, and together with Continental Express, carries approximately 69 million passengers per year.

Continental consistently earns awards and critical acclaim for both its operation and its corporate culture. For the fifth consecutive year, FORTUNE magazine named Continental the No. 1 World's Most Admired Airline on its 2008 list of World's Most Admired Companies. This press release contains forward-looking statements that are not limited to historical facts, but reflect the company's current beliefs, expectations or intentions regarding future events. All forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. For examples of such risks and uncertainties, please see the risk factors set forth in the company's 2007 10-K and its other securities filings, including any amendments thereto, which identify important matters such as the consequences of the company's high leverage, the significant volatility in the cost of aircraft fuel, the company's transition to a new global alliance, delays in scheduled aircraft deliveries, its high labor and pension costs, service interruptions at one of its hub airports, disruptions to the operations of its regional operators, disruptions in its computer systems, and industry conditions, including the airline pricing environment, industry capacity decisions, industry consolidation, terrorist attacks, regulatory matters, excessive taxation, the availability and cost of insurance, public health threats, an economic downturn in the U.S. and global economies and the seasonal nature of the airline business. The company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this press release, except as required by applicable law.
