Regulation G Disclosure Statement

UAL evaluates its financial performance utilizing various accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and non-GAAP financial measures, including, without limitation, Adjusted EBITDAR, adjusted pre-tax income, adjusted free cash flow, adjusted total debt outstanding, and non-fuel CASM. CASM is a common metric used in the airline industry to measure an airline's cost structure and efficiency. Pursuant to SEC Regulation G, UAL has included reconciliations of reported non-GAAP financial measures to comparable financial measures reported on a GAAP basis. UAL includes such measures because management believes they permit investors to view UAL's performance using the same tools that management uses and to better evaluate UAL's ongoing performance.

“The airline business is a people business. For too long the talents and strengths of the people who make United Airlines fly have been taken for granted or even held in contempt by former managements.

“Today’s ‘Labor Summit’ held by United CEO Oscar Munoz signals a long-overdue fresh approach to labor/management relations at United Airlines. We appreciate Mr. Munoz’ outreach to us — especially on his first day back after a medical leave — and welcome his initiative to build an airline of inclusion and collaboration.

“We have evidence of Mr. Munoz’ leadership already and support his focus on concluding all contract negotiations. This is critical to implementing his vision for being United and working with a shared purpose.

“Our passengers and all who have devoted so much into United Airlines stand to benefit from this new day. We look forward to working with Mr. Munoz to help build a United Airlines that fully achieves its potential of being the world’s preeminent airline.”
