Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

United Airlines, Inc. ("United"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Airlines Holdings, Inc. (together with United, the "Company") continues to expect total adjusted capital expenditures for 2020 to be below $4.5 billion. The Company currently expects total adjusted capital expenditures for 2021 to be close to $2 billion. As previously disclosed, the Company plans to only take delivery of aircraft that are fully financed. In 2022, the Company does not expect to be required to take delivery of any new aircraft and expects that non-aircraft adjusted capital expenditures will not exceed $500 million.

In April, the Company experienced gross bookings that were down over 95% compared to April 2019, with customer cancellation rates reaching unprecedented highs. As of May 18, 2020, the Company has seen a reduction in customer cancellation rates and a moderate improvement in demand in the Domestic United States and certain international destinations for the remainder of the second quarter of 2020. As such, the Company expects its scheduled capacity, relative to 2019 levels, for July 2020 to be down approximately 75%. Scheduled capacity for May and June 2020 were reduced by approximately 90% from 2019 levels. The Company plans to continue to proactively evaluate and cancel flights on a rolling 60-day basis until it sees signs of a recovery in demand.

The information in this Item 7.01, is being furnished and shall not be deemed to be "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

¹ Non-cash capital expenditures are not determinable at this time. Accordingly, the Company is not providing capital expenditure guidance on a GAAP basis.
