UAL Corporation Announces Pricing of Common Stock and Convertible Senior Notes Offerings

CHICAGO, October 1, 2009 — UAL Corporation (NASDAQ: UAU), the holding company whose primary subsidiary is United Air Lines, Inc., announced today that it has priced its underwritten registered public offerings of common stock and convertible senior notes.

The company announced that it has agreed to sell 19 million shares of its common stock at a public offering price of $7.24 per share. The company has also granted the underwriters an over-allotment option with respect to an additional 2.85 million shares of its common stock on the same terms and conditions to cover over-allotments, if any.

The company also announced the pricing of $300 million aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2029. The company has granted the underwriters an over-allotment option with respect to an additional $45 million aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes on the same terms and conditions to cover over-allotments, if any. The convertible senior notes will pay interest semi-annually at an annual rate of 6.0%.

Neither the completion of the convertible senior notes offering nor the completion of the common stock offering will be contingent on the completion of the other. The company estimates that the net proceeds from both offerings will be approximately $424 million after deducting estimated offering expenses. The company intends to use the net proceeds for general corporate purposes.

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated and Goldman, Sachs & Co. acted as joint book-running managers of both offerings.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation to buy any securities. A written prospectus for either offering may be obtained, when available, from sales representatives of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., National Statement Processing, Prospectus Library, 4 Chase Metrotech Center, CS Level, Brooklyn, New York 11245; (718) 242-8002; Morgan Stanley & Co.
