PROSPECTUS

$1,850,000,000

CONTINENTAL AIRLINES, INC.

PASS THROUGH CERTIFICATES

Up to $1,850,000,000 aggregate public offering price of Pass Through Certificates (the "Certificates") (or its equivalent (based on the applicable exchange rate at the time of sale) in one or more foreign currencies or currency units) may be offered for sale from time to time pursuant to this Prospectus and related Prospectus Supplements (as defined below). Certificates may be issued in one or more series in amounts, at prices and on terms to be determined at the time of the offering. In respect of each offering of Certificates, a separate Continental Airlines Pass Through Trust for each series of Certificates being offered (each, a "Trust") will be formed pursuant to one or more Pass Through Trust Agreements (each, a "Basic Agreement") and one or more supplements thereto (each, a "Trust Supplement") relating to such Trust to be entered into between Continental Airlines, Inc. ("Continental" or the "Company") and the trustee named therein (the "Trustee"), as trustee under each Trust. Each Certificate in a series will represent a fractional undivided interest in the related Trust and will have no rights, benefits or interests in respect of any other Trust. The property of the Trusts will consist of equipment notes issued (a) on a nonrecourse basis by one or more owner trustees pursuant to separate leveraged lease transactions (the "Leased Aircraft Notes") to finance or refinance a portion of the equipment cost of aircraft, including engines (each, a "Leased Aircraft" and, collectively, the "Leased Aircraft"), which have been or will be leased to Continental pursuant to a separate lease agreement (each such lease agreement, a "Lease") for each Leased Aircraft, or (b) with recourse to Continental (the "Owned Aircraft Notes" and, together with any Leased Aircraft Notes, the "Equipment Notes") to finance or refinance all or a portion of the equipment cost of, or to purchase all or a portion of the outstanding debt with respect to, aircraft, including engines (each, an "Owned Aircraft" and, collectively, the "Owned Aircraft"; together with Leased Aircraft, the "Aircraft"), which have been or will be purchased and owned by Continental. To the extent that the proceeds of any offering of Certificates are not used to purchase Equipment Notes on the date of issuance of such Certificates, such proceeds will be held for the benefit of the holders of such Certificates.

The specific terms of the particular Certificates in respect of which this Prospectus is being delivered will be set forth in a supplement to this Prospectus (the "Prospectus Supplement") which will be delivered together with this Prospectus, including, where applicable, the specific designation, form, aggregate principal amount, interest rate, final distribution date, ranking in respect of priority of payment, initial public offering price and distribution dates relating to such Certificates, the currency in which such Certificates will be payable, the Trust or Trusts relating to such Certificates, the Equipment Notes to be purchased by such Trust or Trusts, the Aircraft relating to such Equipment Notes, the leveraged lease transactions or financing arrangements, as the case may be, relating to such Equipment Notes and other special terms relating to such Certificates and the net proceeds from the offering of such Certificates. The Certificates shall be issued in registered form only and may, if so specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, be issued in accordance with a book-entry system.

With respect to one or more Aircraft, Equipment Notes may be issued, each of which may have a different interest rate, final maturity date and ranking in respect of priority of payment. For each series of Certificates, the Trustee will purchase one or more Equipment Notes issued with respect to one or more Aircraft such that all of the Equipment Notes held in the related Trust will have identical ranking and identical interest rates (in each case equal to the rate applicable to the Certificates issued by such Trust), and such that the latest maturity date for such Equipment Notes will occur on or before the final distribution date for such Certificates. Interest paid on the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be passed through to the holders of the Certificates relating to such Trust on the dates and at the rate per annum set forth in the Prospectus Supplement relating to such Certificates until the final distribution date for such Trust subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions described in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates. Principal paid on the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be passed through to the holders of the Certificates relating to such Trust in scheduled amounts on the dates set forth in the Prospectus Supplement relating to such Certificates until the final distribution date for such Trust subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions described in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates. The Equipment Notes issued with respect to any Aircraft will be secured by a security interest in such Aircraft and, in the case of the Leased Aircraft, by a security interest in the Lease relating thereto, including the right to receive rentals payable by Continental in respect of such Leased Aircraft. Although neither the Certificates nor the Leased Aircraft Notes will be direct obligations of, or guaranteed by, Continental, the amounts unconditionally payable by Continental for lease of Leased Aircraft will be sufficient to pay in full when due all payments required to be made on the corresponding Leased Aircraft Notes.

The Certificates may be sold to or through underwriters, through dealers or agents or directly to purchasers. See "Plan of Distribution". The Prospectus Supplement will set forth the names of any underwriters, dealers or agents involved in the sale of the Certificates in respect of which this Prospectus is being delivered, the proposed amounts, if any, to be purchased by underwriters and the compensation, if any, of such underwriters or agents. See "Plan of Distribution" for information concerning secondary trading of the Certificates.

The following documents filed with the Commission (File No. 0-9781) are hereby incorporated by reference in this Prospectus: (i) Continental's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 1996, filed on February 24, 1997, (ii) Continental's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 1997, filed on April 28, 1997, and June 30, 1997, filed on August 14, 1997, and (iii) Continental's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed January 6, March 21, April 18, May 28, June 10 and June 25, 1997.

Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Prospectus.

Requests should be directed to Continental Airlines, Inc., 2929 Allen Parkway, Suite 2010, Houston, Texas 77019, Attention: Secretary, telephone (713) 834-2950.

Continental Airlines, Inc. is a major United States air carrier engaged in the business of transporting passengers, cargo and mail. Continental is the fifth largest United States airline (as measured by revenue passenger miles in the first seven months of 1997) and, together with its wholly-owned subsidiaries Continental Express, Inc. ("Express") and Continental Micronesia, Inc. ("CMI"), each a Delaware corporation, serves 198 airports worldwide as of August 1, 1997.

The Company operates its route system primarily through domestic hubs at Newark, George Bush Intercontinental in Houston, Cleveland, and a Pacific hub on the island of Guam. Each of Continental's three domestic hubs is located in a large business and population center, contributing to a high volume of "origin and destination" traffic. The Guam hub is strategically located to provide service from Japanese and other Asian cities to popular resort destinations in the western Pacific. Continental is the primary carrier at each of these hubs, accounting for 56%, 80%, 54% and 68% of average daily jet departures, respectively, as of August 1, 1997.

The Company is a Delaware corporation. Its executive offices are located at 2929 Allen Parkway, Suite 2010, Houston, Texas 77019, and its telephone number is (713) 834-2950.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Except as set forth in a Prospectus Supplement for a specific offering of Certificates, the Certificates will be issued in order to facilitate (a) the financing or refinancing of the debt portion and, in certain cases, the refinancing of some of the equity portion of one or more separate leveraged lease transactions entered into by Continental, as lessee, with respect to the Leased Aircraft as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, and (b) the financing or refinancing of the aggregate principal amount of debt to be issued, or the purchase of the aggregate principal amount of the debt previously issued, by Continental in respect of the Owned Aircraft as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Except as set forth in a Prospectus Supplement for a specific offering of Certificates, the proceeds from the sale of the Certificates will be used by the Trustee on behalf of the applicable Trust or Trusts to purchase either (a) Leased Aircraft Notes issued by the respective Owner Trustee or Owner Trustees to finance or refinance (as specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement) the related Leased Aircraft, or (b) Owned Aircraft Notes issued by Continental to finance or refinance (as specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement) the related Owned Aircraft. To the extent that the proceeds of any offering of Certificates are not used to purchase Equipment Notes on the date of issuance of such Certificates, such proceeds will be held for the benefit of the holders of such Certificates. If any such proceeds are not subsequently utilized to purchase Equipment Notes by the relevant date specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, such proceeds will be returned to the holders of such Certificates. See "Description of Certificates--Delayed Purchase of Equipment Notes".

The Leased Aircraft Notes will be issued under separate trust indentures (the "Leased Aircraft Indentures") between a bank, trust company or other institution specified in the related Prospectus Supplement, as trustee thereunder (in such capacity, herein referred to as the "Loan Trustee"), and an institution specified in the related Prospectus Supplement acting, not in its individual capacity, but solely as owner trustee (an "Owner Trustee") of a separate trust for the benefit of one or more institutional investors (each, an "Owner Participant"). With respect to each Leased Aircraft, the related Owner Participant will have provided or will provide from sources other than the Leased Aircraft Notes a portion of the equipment cost of the related Leased Aircraft. No Owner Participant, however, will be personally liable for any amount payable under the related Leased Aircraft Indenture or the Leased Aircraft Notes issued thereunder. Each Leased Aircraft will have been or will be leased by the related Owner Trustee to Continental pursuant to a separate Lease. The Owned Aircraft Notes will be issued under separate trust indentures (the "Owned Aircraft Indentures" and, together with any Leased Aircraft Indentures, the "Indentures") between the applicable Loan Trustee and Continental.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following information for the year ended December 31, 1992 and for the period January 1, 1993 through April 27, 1993 relates to Continental's predecessor, Holdings. Information for the period April 28, 1993 through December 31, 1993, for the years ended December 31, 1994, 1995 and 1996 and for the three and six months ended June 30, 1996 and 1997 relates to Continental. The information as to Continental has not been prepared on a consistent basis of accounting with the information as to Holdings due to Continental's adoption, effective April 27, 1993, of fresh start reporting in accordance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Statement of Position 90-7 - -- "Financial Reporting by Entities in Reorganization Under the Bankruptcy Code" ("SOP 90-7").

For the year ended December 31, 1992, for the periods January 1, 1993 through April 27, 1993 and April 28, 1993 through December 31, 1993 and for the year ended December 31, 1994, earnings were not sufficient to cover fixed charges. Additional earnings of $131 million, $979 million, $60 million and $667 million, respectively, would have been required to achieve ratios of earnings to fixed charges of 1.0. The ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the years ended December 31, 1995 and December 31, 1996 was 1.53 and 1.81, respectively. The ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the three months ended June 30, 1996 and 1997 was 2.57 and 2.48, respectively, and for the six months ended June 30, 1996 and 1997 was 2.13 and 2.18, respectively. For purposes of calculating this ratio, earnings consist of earnings before taxes, minority interest and extraordinary items plus interest expense (net of capitalized interest), the portion of rental expense representative of interest expense and amortization of previously capitalized interest. Fixed charges consist of interest expense and the portion of rental expense representative of interest expense.

GENERAL OUTLINE OF TRUST STRUCTURE

In respect of each offering of Certificates, one or more Trusts will be formed, and the related Certificates issued, pursuant to separate Trust Supplements to be entered into between the Trustee and Continental in accordance with the terms of the Basic Agreement. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of each Trust Supplement, the Trustee, on behalf of the Trust formed thereby, will enter into one or more purchase or refunding agreements (each such agreement being herein referred to as a "Note Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which it will agree to purchase one or more Equipment Notes relating to one or more of the Aircraft described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Pursuant to the applicable Note Purchase Agreement or Note Purchase Agreements, the Trustee, on behalf of each Trust, will purchase one or more Equipment Notes such that the Equipment Notes that constitute the property of such Trust will have identical interest rates (in each case equal to the rate applicable to the Certificates issued by such Trust) and identical priority of payment relative to each of the other Equipment Notes issued under the Related Indentures (as defined below). The maturity dates of the Equipment Notes acquired by each Trust will occur on or before the final distribution date applicable to the Certificates that will be issued by such Trust. The Trustee will distribute the amount of payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest received by it as holder of the Equipment Notes to the registered holders of Certificates of the Trust (the "Certificateholders") in which such Equipment Notes are held, subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions described in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates. To the extent that the proceeds of any offering of Certificates are not used to purchase Equipment Notes on the date of issuance of such Certificates, such proceeds will be held for the benefit of the holders of such Certificates. If any such proceeds are not subsequently utilized to purchase Equipment Notes by the relevant date specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, such proceeds will be returned to the holders of such Certificates. See "Description of the Certificates" and "Description of the Equipment Notes".

DESCRIPTION OF THE CERTIFICATES

In connection with each offering of Certificates, one or more separate Trusts will be formed and one or more series of Certificates will be issued pursuant to the Basic Agreement and one or more separate Trust Supplements to be entered into between Continental and the Trustee. The statements made under this caption are summaries and reference is made to the detailed provisions of the Basic Agreement, the form of which has been filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement of which this Prospectus is a part. The summaries relate to the Basic Agreement and each of the Trust Supplements, the Trusts to be formed thereby and the Certificates to be issued by each Trust except to the extent, if any, described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. The Prospectus Supplement that accompanies this Prospectus contains a glossary of the material terms used with respect to the specific series of Certificates being offered thereby. The Trust Supplement relating to each series of Certificates and the forms of the related Note Purchase Agreement, Indenture, Lease, Trust Agreement, Participation Agreement, intercreditor agreement and liquidity facility arrangement, as applicable, will be filed as exhibits to a post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement of which this Prospectus is a part, a Current Report on Form 8-K, a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q or an Annual Report on Form 10-K, as applicable, filed by Continental with the Commission.

The Certificates offered pursuant to this Prospectus will be limited to $1,850,000,000 aggregate public offering price (or its equivalent (based on the applicable exchange rate at the time of sale) in one or more foreign currencies or currency units).

To the extent that any provision in any Prospectus Supplement is inconsistent with any provision in this summary, the provision of such Prospectus Supplement will control.

GENERAL

Each Certificate will represent a fractional undivided interest in the Trust created by the Trust Supplement pursuant to which such Certificate was issued and all payments and distributions shall be made only from the related Trust Property (as defined below). The property of each Trust (the "Trust Property") will include (i) the Equipment Notes held in such Trust and all monies at any time paid thereon and all monies due and to become due thereunder, subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions described in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates, (ii) funds from time to time deposited with the Trustee in accounts relating to such Trust and (iii) if so specified in the Prospectus Supplement related to a series of Certificates, rights under intercreditor agreements relating to cross-subordination arrangements and monies receivable under a liquidity facility. Each Certificate will represent a pro rata share of the outstanding principal amount of the Equipment Notes held in the related Trust and, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, will be issued in minimum denominations of $1,000 or any integral multiple thereof except that one Certificate of each series may be issued in a different denomination. The Certificates do not represent an interest in or obligation of Continental, the Trustee, any of the Loan Trustees or Owner Trustees in their individual capacities, any Owner Participant, or any affiliate of any thereof. Each Certificateholder by its acceptance of a Certificate agrees to look solely to the income and proceeds from the Trust Property as provided in the Basic Agreement and the applicable Trust Supplement.

The Equipment Notes issued under an Indenture may be held in more than one Trust and one Trust may hold Equipment Notes issued under more than one Indenture (each Indenture the Equipment Notes of which are held in a Trust, a "Related Indenture"). Unless otherwise provided in a Prospectus Supplement, only Equipment Notes having the same priority of payment (the Equipment Notes of any such priority, a "Class") may be held in the same Trust.

Interest will be passed through to Certificateholders of each Trust at the rate per annum payable on the Equipment Notes held in such Trust, as set forth for such Trust on the cover page of the applicable Prospectus Supplement, subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions described in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates.

Reference is made to the Prospectus Supplement that accompanies this Prospectus for a description of the specific series of Certificates being offered thereby, including: (1) the specific designation and title of such Certificates; (2) the Regular Distribution Dates (as defined below) and Special Distribution Dates (as defined below) applicable to such Certificates; (3) the currency or currencies (including currency units) in which such Certificates may be denominated; (4) the specific form of such Certificates, including whether or not such Certificates are to be issued in accordance with a book-entry system; (5) a description of the Equipment Notes to be purchased by such Trust, including (a) the period or periods within which, the price or prices at which, and the terms and conditions upon which such Equipment Notes may or must be redeemed or defeased in whole or in part, by Continental or, with respect to Leased Aircraft Notes, the Owner Trustee, (b) the payment priority of such Equipment Notes in relation to any other Equipment Notes issued with respect to the related Aircraft, (c) any additional security or liquidity enhancements therefor and (d) any intercreditor or other rights or limitations between or among the holders of Equipment Notes of different priorities issued with respect to the same Aircraft; (6) a description of the related Aircraft; (7) a description of the related Note Purchase Agreement and Related Indentures, including a description of the events of default under the Related Indentures, the remedies exercisable upon the occurrence of such events of default and any limitations on the exercise of such remedies with respect to such Equipment Notes; (8) if such Certificates relate to Leased Aircraft, a description of the related Leases, Trust Agreements and Participation Agreements, including (a) the names of the related Owner Trustees, (b) a description of the events of default under the related Leases, the remedies exercisable upon the occurrence of such events of default and any limitations on the exercise of such remedies with respect to such Leased Aircraft Notes, and (c) the rights of the related Owner Trustee, if any, and/or Owner Participant, if any, to cure failures of Continental to pay rent under the related Lease; (9) the extent, if any, to which the provisions of the operative documents applicable to such Equipment Notes may be amended by the parties thereto without the consent of the holders of, or only upon the consent of the holders of a specified percentage of aggregate principal amount of, such Equipment Notes; (10) cross-default or cross-collateralization provisions in the Related Indentures, if any; (11) subordination provisions among the holders of Certificates, including any cross-subordination provisions among the holders of Certificates in separate Trusts; and (12) any other special terms pertaining to such Certificates.

If any Certificates are denominated in one or more foreign currencies or currency units, the restrictions, certain United States federal income tax considerations, specific terms and other information with respect to such Certificates and such foreign currency or currency units will be set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement.

BOOK-ENTRY REGISTRATION

GENERAL

If specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the Certificates will be subject to the provisions described below and under the caption "--Definitive Certificates". Upon issuance, each series of Certificates will be represented by one or more fully registered global certificates. Unless otherwise provided in a Prospectus Supplement, each global certificate will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and registered in the name of CEDE & Co. ("Cede"), the nominee of DTC. No person acquiring an interest in such Certificates ("Certificate Owner") will be entitled to receive a certificate representing such person's interest in such Certificates, except as set forth below under "--Definitive Certificates". Unless and until Definitive Certificates are issued under the limited circumstances described herein, all references to actions by Certificateholders shall refer to actions taken by DTC upon instructions from DTC Participants (as defined below), and all references herein to distributions, notices, reports and statements to Certificateholders shall refer, as the case may be, to distributions, notices, reports and statements to DTC or Cede, as the registered holder of such Certificates, or to DTC Participants for distribution to Certificate Owners in accordance with DTC procedures.

DTC is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and "clearing agency" registered pursuant to section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC was created to hold securities for its participants ("DTC Participants") and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between DTC Participants through electronic book-entries, thereby eliminating the need for physical transfer of certificates. DTC Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations. Indirect access to the DTC system also is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a DTC Participant either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants").

Certificate Owners that are not DTC Participants or Indirect

Participants but desire to purchase, sell or otherwise transfer ownership of, or other interests in, the Certificates may do so only through DTC Participants and Indirect Participants. In addition, Certificate Owners will receive all distributions of principal and interest from the Trustee through DTC Participants or Indirect Participants, as the case may be. Under a book-entry format, Certificate Owners may experience some delay in their receipt of payments, because such payments will be forwarded by the Trustee to Cede, as nominee for DTC. DTC will forward such payments in same-day funds to DTC Participants who are credited with ownership of the Certificates in amounts proportionate to the principal amount of each such DTC Participant's respective holdings of beneficial interests in the Certificates. DTC Participants will thereafter forward payments to Indirect Participants or Certificate Owners, as the case may be, in accordance with customary industry practices. The forwarding of such distributions to the Certificate Owners will be the responsibility of such DTC Participants. Unless and until the Definitive Certificates are issued under the limited circumstances described herein, the only "Certificateholder" will be Cede, as nominee of DTC. Certificate Owners will not be recognized by the Trustee as Certificateholders, as such term is used in the Basic Agreement, and Certificate Owners will be permitted to exercise the rights of Certificateholders only indirectly through DTC and DTC Participants.

Under the rules, regulations and procedures creating and affecting DTC and its operations (the "Rules"), DTC is required to make book-entry transfers of the Certificates among DTC Participants on whose behalf it acts with respect to the Certificates and to receive and transmit distributions of principal, premium, if any, and interest with respect to the Certificates. DTC Participants and Indirect Participants with which Certificate Owners have accounts with respect to the Certificates similarly are required to make book-entry transfers and receive and transmit such payments on behalf of their respective customers. Accordingly, although Certificate Owners will not possess the Certificates, the Rules provide a mechanism by which Certificate Owners will receive payments and will be able to transfer their interests.

Because DTC can only act on behalf of DTC Participants, who in turn act on behalf of Indirect Participants, the ability of a Certificate Owner to pledge the Certificates to persons or entities that do not participate in the DTC system, or to otherwise act with respect to such Certificates, may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate for such Certificates.

DTC will take any action permitted to be taken by a Certificateholder under the Basic Agreement only at the direction of one or more DTC Participants to whose accounts with DTC the Certificates are credited. Additionally, in the event any action requires approval by Certificateholders of a certain percentage of beneficial interest in each Trust, DTC will take such action only at the direction of and on behalf of DTC Participants whose holdings include undivided interests that satisfy any such percentage. DTC may take conflicting actions with respect to other undivided interests to the extent that such actions are taken on behalf of DTC Participants whose holdings include such undivided interests.

Neither Continental nor the Trustee will have any liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Certificates held by Cede, as nominee for DTC, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

The applicable Prospectus Supplement will specify any additional book-entry registration procedures applicable to Certificates denominated in a currency other than United States dollars.

SAME-DAY SETTLEMENT AND PAYMENT

So long as the Certificates are registered in the name of DTC or its nominee, all payments made by Continental to the Loan Trustee under any Lease or any Owned Aircraft Indenture will be in immediately available funds. Such payments, including the final distribution of principal with respect to the Certificates of any Trust, will be passed through to DTC in immediately available funds.

Any Certificates registered in the name of DTC or its nominee, will trade in DTC's Same-Day Funds Settlement System until maturity, and secondary market trading activity in the Certificates will therefore be required by DTC to settle in immediately available funds. No assurance can be given as to the effect, if any, of settlement in same-day funds on trading activity in the Certificates.

DEFINITIVE CERTIFICATES

Certificates will be issued in certificated form ("Definitive Certificates") to Certificate Owners or their nominees, rather than to DTC or its nominee, only if (i) Continental advises the Trustee in writing that DTC is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository with respect to such Certificates and Continental is unable to locate a qualified successor, (ii) Continental, at its option, elects to terminate the book-entry system through DTC or (iii) after the occurrence of certain events of default or other events specified in the related Prospectus Supplement, Certificate Owners with fractional undivided interests aggregating not less than a majority in interest in such Trust advise the Trustee, Continental and DTC through DTC Participants in writing that the continuation of a book-entry system through DTC (or a successor thereto) is no longer in the Certificate Owners' best interest. Upon the occurrence of any event described in the immediately preceding sentence, the Trustee will be required to notify all Certificate Owners through DTC Participants of the availability of Definitive Certificates. Upon surrender by DTC of the certificates representing the Certificates and receipt of instructions for re-registration, the Trustee will reissue the Certificates as Definitive Certificates to Certificate Owners.

Distributions of principal, premium, if any, and interest with respect to Certificates will thereafter be made by the Trustee directly in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Basic Agreement and the applicable Trust Supplements, to holders in whose names the Definitive Certificates were registered at the close of business on the applicable record date. Such distributions will be made by check mailed to the address of such holder as it appears on the register maintained by the Trustee. The final payment on any Certificate, however, will be made only upon presentation and surrender of such Certificate at the office or agency specified in the notice of final distribution to Certificateholders.

Definitive Certificates will be freely transferable and exchangeable at the office of the Trustee upon compliance with the requirements set forth in the Basic Agreement and the applicable Trust Supplements. No service charge will be imposed for any registration of transfer or exchange, but payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge shall be required.

PAYMENTS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions set forth in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates, payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest with respect to the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be distributed by the Trustee, upon receipt, to Certificateholders of such Trust on the dates and in the currency specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, except in certain cases when some or all of such Equipment Notes are in default as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Payments of principal of, and interest on, the unpaid principal amount of the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be scheduled to be received by the Trustee on the dates specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement (such scheduled payments of interest and principal on the Equipment Notes to the Trustee are herein referred to as "Scheduled Payments", and the dates specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement for distribution of Scheduled Payments to the Trustee are herein referred to as "Regular Distribution Dates"). See "Description of the Equipment Notes--General". Subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions set forth in the Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates, each Certificateholder of each Trust will be entitled to receive a pro rata share of any distribution in respect of Scheduled Payments of principal and interest made on the Equipment Notes held in the Trust.

Payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest received by the Trustee on account of the early redemption, if any, of the Equipment Notes relating to one or more Aircraft held in a Trust, and payments, other than Scheduled Payments received on a Regular Distribution Date or within five days thereafter, received by the Trustee following default in respect of Equipment Notes held in a Trust relating to one or more Aircraft ("Special Payments") will be distributed on the date determined as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement (a "Special Distribution Date") except that, if specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, payments received by the Trustee following default in respect of the Equipment Notes on a Regular Distribution Date as a result of a drawing under any liquidity facility, as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement (each, a "Liquidity Facility"), provided for the benefit of the specified Certificateholders shall be distributed on such Regular Distribution Date to such Certificateholders. The Trustee will mail notice to the Certificateholders of record of the applicable Trust stating any such anticipated Special Distribution Date.

POOL FACTORS

Unless otherwise described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the "Pool Balance" for each Trust or for the Certificates issued by any Trust indicates, as of any date, the original aggregate face amount of the Certificates of such Trust less the aggregate amount of all payments made in respect of the Certificates of such Trust other than payments made in respect of interest or premium thereon or reimbursement of any costs and expenses in connection therewith. The Pool Balance for each Trust as of any Regular Distribution Date or Special Distribution Date shall be computed after giving effect to the payment of principal, if any, on the Equipment Notes or other Trust Property held in such Trust and the distribution thereof to be made on that date.

Unless otherwise described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the "Pool Factor" for each Trust as of any Regular Distribution Date or Special Distribution Date is the quotient (rounded to the seventh decimal place) computed by dividing (i) the Pool Balance by (ii) the aggregate original face amount of the Certificates of such Trust. The Pool Factor for each Trust as of any Regular Distribution Date or Special Distribution Date shall be computed after giving effect to the payment of principal, if any, on the Equipment Notes or other Trust Property held in such Trust and distribution thereof to be made on that date. The Pool Factor for each Trust will initially be 1.0000000; thereafter, the Pool Factor for each Trust will decline as described herein to reflect reductions in the Pool Balance of such Trust. The amount of a Certificateholder's pro rata share of the Pool Balance of a Trust can be determined by multiplying the original denomination of the holder's Certificate of such Trust by the Pool Factor for such Trust as of the applicable Regular Distribution Date or Special Distribution Date. The Pool Factor and the Pool Balance for each Trust will be mailed to Certificateholders of such Trust on each Regular Distribution Date and Special Distribution Date.

Unless there has been an early redemption, a purchase of an issue of Equipment Notes by the related Owner Trustee after an Indenture Default (as defined below), a default in the payment of principal in respect of one or more issues of the Equipment Notes held in a Trust or certain actions have been taken following a default thereon, as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the Pool Factor for the Trusts will decline in proportion to the scheduled repayments of principal on the Equipment Notes held in such Trust as described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. In the event of such redemption, purchase or default, the Pool Factor and the Pool Balance of each Trust so affected will be recomputed after giving effect thereto and notice thereof will be mailed to the Certificateholders of such Trust. Each Trust will have a separate Pool Factor.

REPORTS TO CERTIFICATEHOLDERS

On each Regular Distribution Date and Special Distribution Date, the Trustee will include with each distribution of a Scheduled Payment or Special Payment to Certificateholders of the related Trust a statement, giving effect to such distribution to be made on such Regular Distribution Date or Special Distribution Date, setting forth the following information (per $1,000 aggregate principal amount of Certificate for such Trust, as to (i) and (ii) below):

- (i) the amount of such distribution allocable to principal and the amount allocable to premium, if any;
- (ii) the amount of such distribution allocable to interest; and
- (iii) the Pool Balance and the Pool Factor for such Trust.

So long as the Certificates are registered in the name of DTC or its nominee, on the record date prior to each Regular Distribution Date and Special Distribution Date, the Trustee will request from DTC a securities position listing setting forth the names of all DTC Participants reflected on DTC's books as holding interests in the Certificates on such record date. On each Regular Distribution Date and Special Distribution Date, the applicable Trustee will mail to each such DTC Participant the statement described above and will make available additional copies as requested by such DTC Participant for forwarding to Certificate Owners.

In addition, after the end of each calendar year, the Trustee will prepare for each Certificateholder of each Trust at any time during the preceding calendar year a report containing the sum of the amounts determined pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) above with respect to the Trust for such calendar year or, in the event such person was a Certificateholder during only a portion of such calendar year, for the applicable portion of such calendar year, and such other items as are readily available to the Trustee and which a Certificateholder shall reasonably request as necessary for the purpose of such Certificateholder's preparation of its federal income tax returns. Such report and such other items shall be prepared on the basis of information supplied to the Trustee by the DTC Participants and shall be delivered by the Trustee to such DTC Participants to be available for forwarding by such DTC Participants to Certificate Owners in the manner described above.

At such time, if any, as the Certificates are issued in the form of Definitive Certificates, the Trustee will prepare and deliver the information described above to each Certificateholder of record of each Trust as the name and period of ownership of such Certificateholder appears on the records of the registrar of the Certificates.

VOTING OF EQUIPMENT NOTES

Subject to the effect of any cross-subordination provisions set forth in the related Prospectus Supplement, the Trustee, as holder of the Equipment Notes held in each Trust, has the right to vote and give consents and waivers with respect to such Equipment Notes under the Related Indentures. The Basic Agreement and related Trust Supplement set forth (i) the circumstances in which the Trustee may direct any action or cast any vote as the holder of the Equipment Notes held in the applicable Trust at its own discretion, (ii) the circumstances in which the Trustee shall seek instructions from the Certificateholders of such Trust and (iii) the percentage of Certificateholders required to direct the Trustee to take any such action. If specified in the related Prospectus Supplement, the right of a Trustee to vote and give consents and waivers with respect to the Equipment Notes held in the related Trust may, in the circumstances set forth in an intercreditor agreement to be executed by such Trustee, be exercisable by another person specified in such Prospectus Supplement.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND CERTAIN RIGHTS UPON AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

The Prospectus Supplement will specify the events of default under the Basic Agreement (an "Event of Default") and the Related Indentures (an "Indenture Default"). The Indenture Defaults in the case of Leased Aircraft Indentures will include events of default under the related Leases (a "Lease Event of Default"). With respect to any Equipment Notes which are supported by a Liquidity Facility, the Indenture Defaults or Events of Default may include events of default under such Liquidity Facility. Unless otherwise provided in a Prospectus Supplement, all of the Equipment Notes issued under the same Indenture will relate to a specific Aircraft and there will be no cross-collateralization or cross-default provisions in the Indentures, and events resulting in an Indenture Default under any particular Indenture will not necessarily result in an Indenture Default occurring under any other Indenture. If an Indenture Default occurs in fewer than all of the Indentures, notwithstanding the treatment of Equipment Notes issued under any Indenture under which an Indenture Default has occurred, payments of principal and interest on the Equipment Notes issued pursuant to Indentures with respect to which an Indenture Default has not occurred will continue to be made as originally scheduled. As described below under "--Cross-Subordination Issues", a Prospectus Supplement may provide the terms of any cross-subordination provisions among Certificateholders of separate Trusts. If such provisions are so provided, payments made pursuant to a Related Indenture under which an Indenture Default has not occurred may be distributed first to the holders of the Certificates issued under the Trust which holds the most senior Equipment Notes issued under all Related Indentures.

The ability of the applicable Owner Trustee or Owner Participant under a Leased Aircraft Indenture to cure Indenture Defaults, including an Indenture Default that results from the occurrence of a Lease Event of Default under the related Lease, will be described in the Prospectus Supplement. Unless otherwise provided in a Prospectus Supplement, with respect to any Certificates or Equipment Notes entitled to the benefits of a Liquidity Facility, a drawing under any such Liquidity Facility for the purpose of making a payment of interest as a result of the failure by Continental to have made a corresponding payment will not cure an Indenture Default related to such failure by Continental.

The Prospectus Supplement related to a series of Certificates will describe the circumstances under which the Trustee of the related Trust may vote some or all of the Equipment Notes held in such Trust. Such Prospectus Supplement also will set forth the percentage of Certificateholders of such Trust entitled to direct the Trustee to take any action with respect to such Equipment Notes. If the Equipment Notes outstanding under an Indenture are held by more than one Trust, then the ability of the Certificateholders issued with respect to any one Trust to cause the Loan Trustee with respect to any Equipment Notes held in such Trust to accelerate the Equipment Notes under the applicable Indenture or to direct the exercise of remedies by the Loan Trustee under the applicable Indenture will depend, in part, upon the proportion of the aggregate principal amount of the Equipment Notes outstanding under such Indenture and held in such Trust to the aggregate principal amount of all Equipment Notes outstanding under such Indenture. In addition, if cross-subordination provisions are applicable to any series of Certificates, then the ability of the Certificateholders of any one Trust holding Equipment Notes issued under an Indenture to cause the Loan Trustee with respect to any Equipment Notes held in such Trust to accelerate the Equipment Notes under such Indenture or to direct the exercise of remedies by the Loan Trustee under such Indenture will depend, in part, upon the Class of Equipment Notes held in such Trust. If the Equipment Notes outstanding under an Indenture are held by more than one Trust, then each Trust will hold Equipment Notes with different terms from the Equipment Notes held in the other Trusts and therefore the Certificateholders of each Trust may have divergent or conflicting interests from those of the Certificateholders of the other Trusts holding Equipment Notes issued under the same Indenture. In addition, so long as the same institution acts as Trustee of each Trust, in the absence of instructions from the Certificateholders of any such Trust, the Trustee for such Trust could for the same reason be faced with a potential conflict of interest upon an Indenture Default. In such event, the Trustee has indicated that it would resign as Trustee of one or all such Trusts, and a successor trustee would be appointed in accordance with the terms of the Basic Agreement.

The Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates will specify whether and under what circumstances the Trustee may sell for cash to any person all or part of the Equipment Notes held in the related Trust. Any proceeds received by the Trustee upon any such sale shall be deposited in an account established by the Trustee for the benefit of the Certificateholders of such Trust for the deposit of such Special Payments (the "Special Payments Account") and shall be distributed to the Certificateholders of such Trust on a Special Distribution Date. The market for Equipment Notes in default may be very limited, and there can be no assurance that they could be sold for a reasonable price. Furthermore, so long as the same institution acts as Trustee of multiple Trusts, it may be faced with a conflict in deciding from which Trust to sell Equipment Notes to available buyers. If the Trustee sells any such Equipment Notes with respect to which an Indenture Default exists for less than their outstanding principal amount, the Certificateholders of such Trust will receive a smaller amount of principal distributions than anticipated and will not have any claim for the shortfall against Continental, any Owner Trustee, Owner Participant or the Trustee. Furthermore, neither the Trustee nor the Certificateholders of such Trust could take any action with respect to any remaining Equipment Notes held in such Trust so long as no Indenture Defaults exist with respect thereto.

Any amount, other than Scheduled Payments received on a Regular Distribution Date, distributed to the Trustee of any Trust by the Loan Trustee under any Indenture on account of the Equipment Notes held in such Trust following an Indenture Default under such Indenture shall be deposited in the Special Payments Account for such Trust and shall be distributed to the Certificateholders of such Trust on a Special Distribution Date. In addition, if a Prospectus Supplement provides that the applicable Owner Trustee may, under circumstances specified therein, redeem or purchase the outstanding Equipment Notes issued under the applicable Indenture, the price paid by such Owner Trustee to the Trustee of any Trust for the Equipment Notes issued under such Indenture and held in such Trust shall be deposited in the Special Payments Account for such Trust and shall be distributed to the Certificateholders of such Trust on a Special Distribution Date.

Any funds representing payments received with respect to any Equipment Notes in default held in a Trust, or the proceeds from the sale by the Trustee of any such Equipment Notes, held by the Trustee in the Special Payments Account for such Trust shall, to the extent practicable, be invested and reinvested by the Trustee in Permitted Investments pending the distribution of such funds on a Special Distribution Date. "Permitted Investments" will be specified in the related Prospectus Supplement.

The Basic Agreement provides that the Trustee of each Trust shall, within 90 days after the occurrence of a default in respect of such Trust, give to the Certificateholders of such Trust notice, transmitted by mail, of all uncured or unwaived defaults with respect to such Trust known to it, provided that, except in the case of default in the payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on any of the Equipment Notes held in such Trust, the Trustee shall be protected in withholding such notice if it in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interests of such Certificateholders. The term "default" as used in this paragraph only means the occurrence of an Indenture Default with respect to Equipment Notes held in a Trust as described above, except that in determining whether any such Indenture Default has occurred, any grace period or notice in connection therewith shall be disregarded.

The Basic Agreement contains a provision entitling the Trustee of each Trust, subject to the duty of the Trustee during a default to act with the required standard of care, to be offered reasonable security or indemnity by the Certificateholders of such Trust before proceeding to exercise any right or power under the Basic Agreement at the request of such Certificateholders.

The Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates will specify the percentage of Certificateholders entitled to waive, or to instruct the Trustee to waive, any past Event of Default with respect to such Trust and its consequences. The Prospectus Supplement for a series of Certificates also will specify the percentage of Certificateholders (and whether of such Trust or of any other Trust holding Equipment Notes issued under Related Indentures) entitled to waive, or to instruct the Trustee or the Loan Trustee to waive, any past Indenture Default under any Related Indenture and thereby annul any direction given with respect thereto.

MERGER, CONSOLIDATION AND TRANSFER OF ASSETS

Continental will be prohibited from consolidating with or merging into any other corporation or transferring substantially all of its assets as an entirety to any other corporation unless (i) the surviving, successor or transferee corporation shall (a) be validly existing under the laws of the United States or any state thereof, (b) be a "citizen of the United States" (as defined in Title 49 of the United States Code relating to aviation (the "Transportation Code")) holding an air carrier operating certificate issued by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to Chapter 447 of Title 49, United States Code, if, and so long as, such status is a condition of entitlement to the benefits of Section 1110 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) expressly assume all of the obligations of Continental contained in the Basic Agreement and any Trust Supplement, the Note Purchase Agreements, any Owned Aircraft Indentures and, with respect to the Leased Aircraft, the applicable Participation Agreements and Leases, and any other operative documents; and (ii) Continental shall have delivered a certificate and an opinion or opinions of counsel indicating that such transaction, in effect, complies with such conditions.

MODIFICATIONS OF THE BASIC AGREEMENT

The Basic Agreement contains provisions permitting Continental and the Trustee of each Trust to enter into a supplemental trust agreement, without the consent of the holders of any of the Certificates of such Trust, including among other things (i) to provide for the formation of such Trust and the issuance of a series of Certificates, (ii) to evidence the succession of another corporation to Continental and the assumption by such corporation of Continental's obligations under the Basic Agreement and the applicable Trust Supplement, (iii) to add to the covenants of Continental for the benefit of holders of such Certificates, or to surrender any right or power in the Basic Agreement conferred upon Continental, (iv) to cure any ambiguity or correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision of the Basic Agreement or the applicable Trust Supplement or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising thereunder, provided such action shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of such Certificates, or to cure any ambiguity or correct any mistake or (without limitation of the foregoing), to give effect or provide for replacement liquidity facilities, if applicable to such Certificates, (v) to comply with any requirement of the Commission, any applicable law, rules or regulations of any exchange or quotation system on which any Certificates may be listed or of any regulatory body, (vi) to modify, eliminate or add to the provisions of the Basic Agreement to the extent as shall be necessary to continue the qualification of the Basic Agreement (including any supplemental agreement) under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "Trust Indenture Act") and to add to the Basic Agreement such other provisions as may be expressly permitted by the Trust Indenture Act, (vii) to provide for a successor Trustee or to add to or change any provision of the Basic Agreement as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the Trusts thereunder by more than one Trustee and (viii) to make any other amendments or modifications to the Basic Agreement, provided such amendments or modifications shall only apply to Certificates issued thereafter; provided, in the case of clauses (i) through (viii) above, that no such supplemental trust agreement shall adversely affect the status of any Trust as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Basic Agreement also contains provisions permitting Continental and the Trustee of each Trust, with the consent of the Certificateholders of such Trust evidencing fractional undivided interests aggregating not less than a majority in interest of such Trust, and, with respect to any Leased Aircraft, with the consent of the applicable Owner Trustee (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), to execute supplemental trust agreements adding any provisions to or changing or eliminating any of the provisions of the Basic Agreement, to the extent relating to such Trust, and the applicable Trust Supplement, or modifying the rights of the Certificateholders, except that no such supplemental trust agreement may, without the consent of each Certificateholder so affected thereby, (a) reduce in any manner the amount of, or delay the timing of, any receipt by the Trustee of payments on the Equipment Notes held in such Trust or distributions in respect of any Certificate related to such Trust, or change the date or place of any payment in respect of any Certificate, or make distributions payable in coin or currency other than that provided for in such Certificates, or impair the right of any Certificateholder of such Trust to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment when due, (b) permit the disposition of any Equipment Note held in such Trust, except as provided in the Basic Agreement or the applicable Trust Supplement, or otherwise deprive any Certificateholder of the benefit of the ownership of the applicable Equipment Notes, (c) reduce the percentage of the aggregate fractional undivided interests of the Trust provided for in the Basic Agreement or the applicable Trust Supplement, the consent of the holders of which is required for any such supplemental trust agreement or for any waiver provided for in the Basic Agreement or such Trust Supplement, (d) modify any of the provisions relating to the rights of the Certificateholders in respect of the waiver of events of default or receipt of payment, (e) alter the priority of distributions specified in any applicable intercreditor agreement in a manner materially adverse to the interests of the Certificateholders of such Trust or (f) adversely affect the status of any Trust as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

MODIFICATION OF INDENTURE AND RELATED AGREEMENTS

The Prospectus Supplement will specify the Trustee's obligations in the event that the Trustee, as the holder of any Equipment Notes held in a Trust, receives a request for its consent to any amendment, modification or waiver under the Indenture or other documents relating to such Equipment Notes (including any Lease with respect to Leased Aircraft Notes) or any Liquidity Facility.

CROSS-SUBORDINATION ISSUES

The Equipment Notes issued under an Indenture may be held in more than one Trust and one Trust may hold Equipment Notes issued under more than one Related Indenture. Unless otherwise provided in a Prospectus Supplement, only Equipment Notes of the same Class may be held in the same Trust. In such event, payments made on account of a subordinate class of Certificates issued under a Prospectus Supplement may, under circumstances described in such Prospectus Supplement, be subordinated to the prior payment of all amounts owing to Certificateholders of a Trust which holds senior Equipment Notes issued under any Related Indentures. The Prospectus Supplement related to an issuance of Certificates will describe any such "cross-subordination" provisions and any related terms, including the percentage of Certificateholders under any Trust which are permitted to (i) grant waivers of defaults under any Related Indenture, (ii) consent to the amendment or modification of any Related Indenture or (iii) direct the exercise of remedial actions under any Related Indenture.

TERMINATION OF THE TRUSTS

The obligations of Continental and the Trustee with respect to a Trust will terminate upon the distribution to Certificateholders of such Trust of all amounts required to be distributed to them pursuant to the Basic Agreement and the applicable Trust Supplement and the disposition of all property held in such Trust. In no event shall any Trust continue beyond 110 years following the date of the execution of the applicable Trust Supplement (or such other final expiration date as may be specified in such Trust Supplement). The Trustee will send to each Certificateholder of record of such Trust notice of the termination of such Trust, the amount of the proposed final payment and the proposed date for the distribution of such final payment for such Trust. The final distribution to any Certificateholder of such Trust will be made only upon surrender of such Certificateholder's Certificates at the office or agency of the Trustee specified in such notice of termination.

DELAYED PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT NOTES

In the event that, on the issuance date of any Certificates, all of the proceeds from the sale of such Certificates are not used to purchase the Equipment Notes contemplated to be held in the related Trust, such Equipment Notes may be purchased by the Trustee at any time on or prior to the date specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. In such event, the proceeds from the sale of such Certificates not used to purchase Equipment Notes will be held under an arrangement described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement pending the purchase of the Equipment Notes not so purchased. The arrangements with respect to the payment of interest on funds so held will be described in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. If any such proceeds are not subsequently utilized to purchase Equipment Notes by the relevant date specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, such proceeds will be returned to the holders of such Certificates.

LIQUIDITY FACILITY

The related Prospectus Supplement may provide that one or more payments of interest on the Certificates of one or more series will be supported by a Liquidity Facility issued by an institution identified in the related Prospectus Supplement. The provider of such Liquidity Facility may have a claim senior to the Certificateholders' as specified in the related Prospectus Supplement.

THE TRUSTEE

Unless otherwise provided in the Prospectus Supplement for any series of Certificates, the Trustee for each series of Certificates will be Wilmington Trust Company. With certain exceptions, the Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of the Basic Agreement, the Trust Supplements, the Certificates, the Equipment Notes, the Indentures, the Leases or other related documents. The Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any series of Certificates for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the holders of a majority in principal amount of outstanding Certificates of such series issued under the Basic Agreement. Subject to such provisions, such Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the Basic Agreement at the request of any holders of Certificates issued thereunder unless they shall have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it. The Basic Agreement provides that the Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may acquire and hold Certificates issued thereunder and, subject to certain conditions, may otherwise deal with Continental and, with respect to the Leased Aircraft, with any Owner Trustee with the same rights it would have if it were not the Trustee.

The Trustee may resign with respect to any or all of the Trusts at any time, in which event Continental will be obligated to appoint a successor trustee. If the Trustee ceases to be eligible to continue as Trustee with respect to a Trust or becomes incapable of acting as Trustee or becomes insolvent, Continental may remove such Trustee, or any Certificateholder of such Trust for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of such Trustee and the appointment of a successor trustee. Any resignation or removal of the Trustee with respect to a Trust and appointment of a successor trustee for such Trust does not become effective until acceptance of the appointment by the successor trustee. Pursuant to such resignation and successor trustee provisions, it is possible that a different trustee could be appointed to act as the successor trustee with respect to each Trust. All references in this Prospectus to the Trustee should be read to take into account the possibility that the Trusts could have different successor trustees in the event of such a resignation or removal.

The Basic Agreement provides that Continental will pay the Trustee's fees and expenses and indemnify the Trustee against certain liabilities.

DESCRIPTION OF THE EQUIPMENT NOTES

The statements made under this caption are summaries and reference is made to the entire Prospectus and detailed information appearing in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Where no distinction is made between the Leased Aircraft Notes and the Owned Aircraft Notes or between their respective Indentures, such statements refer to any Equipment Notes and any Indenture.

To the extent that any provision in any Prospectus Supplement is inconsistent with any provision in this summary, the provision of such Prospectus Supplement will control.

GENERAL

Equipment Notes will be issued under Indentures either (a) between the related Owner Trustee of a trust for the benefit of the Owner Participant who is the beneficial owner of the related Aircraft, and the related Loan Trustee, or (b) between Continental and the related Loan Trustee. The Equipment Notes issued pursuant to clause (a) of the preceding sentence will be nonrecourse obligations of the applicable Owner Trust. Each Equipment Note will be authenticated under an Indenture by the Loan Trustee. All Equipment Notes issued under the same Indenture will relate to, and be secured by, one or more Aircraft identified and described in the related Prospectus Supplement and which, in the case of Equipment Notes issued as described in such clause (a), are leased to Continental pursuant to a Lease between the Owner Trustee under the applicable Owner Trust and Continental or, in the case of Equipment Notes issued as described in clause (b), owned by Continental.

With respect to each Leased Aircraft, the related Owner Trustee has acquired or will acquire such Aircraft, will grant a security interest in such Aircraft to the related Loan Trustee as security for the payments of the related Leased Aircraft Notes, and has leased or will lease such Aircraft to Continental pursuant to the related Lease which has been or will be assigned to the related Loan Trustee. Pursuant to each such Lease, Continental will be obligated to make or cause to be made rental and other payments to the related Loan Trustee on behalf of the related Owner Trustee.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYMENTS

Interest received by the Trustee on the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be passed through to the Certificateholders of such Trust on the dates and at the rate per annum set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement until the final distribution for such Trust. Principal payments received by the Trustee on the Equipment Notes held in each Trust will be passed through to the Certificateholders of such Trust in scheduled amounts on the dates set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement until the final distribution date for such Trust.

If any date scheduled for any payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest with respect to the Equipment Notes is not a Business Day, such payment will be made on the next succeeding Business Day without any additional interest.

REDEMPTION

The applicable Prospectus Supplement will describe the circumstances, whether voluntary or involuntary, under which the Equipment Notes may be redeemed or purchased prior to the stated maturity date thereof, in whole or in part, the premium, if any, applicable upon certain redemptions or purchases and other terms applying to the redemptions or purchases of such Equipment Notes.

SECURITY

The Leased Aircraft Notes will be secured by (i) an assignment by the related Owner Trustee to the related Loan Trustee of such Owner Trustee's rights (except for certain rights, including those described below) under the Lease or Leases with respect to the related Aircraft, including the right to receive payments of rent thereunder, and (ii) a mortgage granted to such Loan Trustee in such Aircraft, subject to the rights of Continental under such Lease or Leases. Under the terms of each Lease, Continental's obligations in respect of each Leased Aircraft will be those of a lessee under a "net lease". Accordingly, Continental will be obligated, among other things and at its expense, to cause each Leased Aircraft to be duly registered, to pay all costs of operating such Aircraft and to maintain, service, repair and overhaul (or cause to be maintained, serviced, repaired and overhauled) such Aircraft. With respect to the Leased Aircraft, the assignment by the related Owner Trustee to the related Loan Trustee of its rights under the related Lease will exclude, among other things, rights of such Owner Trustee and the related Owner Participant relating to indemnification by Continental for certain matters, insurance proceeds payable to such Owner Trustee in its individual capacity and to such Owner Participant under liability insurance maintained by Continental pursuant to such Lease or by such Owner Trustee or such Owner Participant, insurance proceeds payable to such Owner Trustee in its individual capacity or to such Owner Participant under certain casualty insurance maintained by such Owner Trustee or such Owner Participant pursuant to such Lease and any rights of such Owner Participant or such Owner Trustee to enforce payment of the foregoing amounts and their respective rights to the proceeds of the foregoing.

The Owned Aircraft Notes will be secured by a mortgage granted to the related Loan Trustee of all of Continental's right, title and interest in and to such Owned Aircraft. Under the terms of each Owned Aircraft Indenture, Continental will be obligated, among other things and at its expense, to cause each Owned Aircraft to be duly registered, to pay all costs of operating such Aircraft and to maintain, service, repair and overhaul (or cause to be maintained, serviced, repaired and overhauled) such Aircraft.

The Prospectus Supplement will describe the required insurance coverage with respect to the Aircraft.

Continental will be required, except under certain circumstances, to keep each Aircraft registered under the Transportation Code, and to record the Indenture and the Lease, if applicable, among other documents, with respect to each Aircraft under the Transportation Code. Such recordation of the Indenture, the Lease, if applicable, and other documents with respect to each Aircraft will give the related Loan Trustee a perfected security interest in the related Aircraft whenever it is located in the United States or any of its territories and possessions; the Convention on the International Recognition of Rights in Aircraft (the "Convention") provides that such security will also be recognized, with certain limited exceptions, in those jurisdictions that have ratified or adhere to the Convention. Continental will have the right, subject to certain conditions, at its own expense to register each Aircraft in countries other than the United States. Each Aircraft may also be operated by Continental or under lease, sublease or interchange arrangements in countries that are not parties to the Convention. The extent to which the related Loan Trustee's security interest would be recognized in an Aircraft located in a country that is not a party to the Convention, and the extent to which such security interest would be recognized in a jurisdiction adhering to the Convention if the Aircraft is registered in a jurisdiction not a party to the Convention, is uncertain. Moreover, in the case of an Indenture Default, the ability of the related Loan Trustee to realize upon its security interest in an Aircraft could be adversely affected as a legal or practical matter if such Aircraft were registered or located outside the United States.

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the Equipment Notes will not be cross-collateralized and consequently the Equipment Notes issued in respect of any one Aircraft will not be secured by any other Aircraft or, in the case of Leased Aircraft Notes, the Lease related thereto. Unless and until an Indenture Default with respect to a Leased Aircraft has occurred and is continuing, the related Loan Trustee may exercise only limited rights of the related Owner Trustee under the related Lease.

Funds, if any, held from time to time by the Loan Trustee with respect to any Aircraft, prior to the distribution thereof, will be invested and reinvested by such Loan Trustee. Such investment and reinvestment will be at the direction of Continental (except, with respect to a Leased Aircraft, in the case of a Lease Event of Default under the applicable Lease or, with respect to an Owned Aircraft, in the case of an Indenture Default under the applicable Indenture), in certain investments described in the applicable Indenture. The net amount of any loss resulting from any such investments will be paid by Continental.

Section 1110 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code provides in relevant part that the right of lessors, conditional vendors and holders of security interests with respect to "equipment" (as defined in Section 1110 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code) to take possession of such equipment in compliance with the provisions of a lease, conditional sale contract or security agreement, as the case may be, is not affected by (a) the automatic stay provision of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, which provision enjoins repossessions by creditors for the duration of the reorganization period, (b) the provision of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code allowing the trustee in reorganization to use property of the debtor during the reorganization period, (c) Section 1129 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (which governs the confirmation of plans of reorganization in Chapter 11 cases) and (d) any power of the bankruptcy court to enjoin a repossession. Section 1110 provides, however, in relevant part that the right of a lessor, conditional vendor or holder of a security interest to take possession of an aircraft in the event of an event of default may not be exercised for 60 days following the date of commencement of the reorganization proceedings (unless specifically permitted by the bankruptcy court) and may not be exercised at all if, within such 60-day period (or such longer period consented to by the lessor, conditional vendor or holder of a security interest), the trustee in reorganization agrees to perform the debtor's obligations that become due on or after such date and cures all existing defaults (other than defaults resulting solely from the financial condition, bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the debtor). "Equipment" is defined in Section 1110 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, in part, as an aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, appliance, or spare part (as defined in Section 40102 of Title 49 of the U.S. Code) that is subject to a security interest granted by, leased to, or conditionally sold to a debtor that is a citizen of the United States (as defined in Section 40102 of Title 49 of the U.S. Code) holding an air carrier operating certificate issued by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to chapter 447 of Title 49 of the U.S. Code for aircraft capable of carrying 10 or more individuals or 6,000 pounds of more of cargo (subject to certain limitations in the case of equipment first placed in service on or prior to October 22, 1994).

In connection with any issuance of Certificates under this Prospectus and the applicable Prospectus Supplement, it is a condition to the Trustee's obligation to purchase Equipment Notes with respect to each Aircraft that outside counsel to Continental provide its opinion to such Trustee that (i) if such Aircraft is a Leased Aircraft, the Owner Trustee, as lessor under the Lease for such Aircraft, and the Loan Trustee, as assignee of such Owner Trustee's rights under such Lease pursuant to the applicable Indenture, will be entitled to the benefits of Section 1110 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code with respect to the airframe and engines comprising such Aircraft or (ii) if such Aircraft is an Owned Aircraft, the Loan Trustee will be entitled to the benefits of Section 1110 with respect to the airframe and engines comprising such Owned Aircraft, in each case so long as Continental continues to be a "citizen of the United States" as defined in Section 40102 of Title 49 of the U.S. Code holding an air carrier operating certificate issued by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to Chapter 447 of Title 49 of the U.S. Code for aircraft capable of carrying 10 or more individuals or 6,000 pounds or more of cargo. Such opinion will not address the possible replacement of an Aircraft after an Event of Loss (as defined in the Indenture) in the future.

RANKING OF EQUIPMENT NOTES

Some of the Equipment Notes related to one or more Aircraft, as described in the related Prospectus Supplement, may be subordinated and junior in right of payment to other Equipment Notes related to the same Aircraft. The terms of such subordination, if any, will be described in the related Prospectus Supplement.

PAYMENTS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Each Leased Aircraft will be leased by the related Owner Trustee to Continental for a term commencing on the delivery date thereof to such Owner Trustee and expiring on a date not earlier than the latest maturity date of the related Leased Aircraft Notes, unless previously terminated as permitted by the terms of the related Lease. The basic rent and certain other payments under each such Lease will be payable by Continental and will be assigned by the related Owner Trustee under the applicable Indenture to the related Loan Trustee to provide the funds necessary to pay principal of, premium, if any, and interest due from such Owner Trustee on the Leased Aircraft Notes issued under such Indenture. In certain cases, the basic rent payments under a Lease may be adjusted, but each Lease will provide that under no circumstances will rent payments by Continental be less than the scheduled payments on the related Leased Aircraft Notes. The balance of any basic rent payment under each Lease, after payment of amounts due on the Leased Aircraft Notes issued under the Indenture corresponding to such Lease, will be paid over to the applicable Owner Trustee. Continental's obligation to pay rent and to cause other payments to be made under each Lease will be general obligations of Continental.

With respect to the Leased Aircraft Notes, except in certain circumstances involving Continental's purchase of a Leased Aircraft and the assumption of the Leased Aircraft Notes related thereto, the Leased Aircraft Notes will not be obligations of, or guaranteed by, Continental. With respect to the Leased Aircraft Notes, none of the Owner Trustees, the Owner Participants or the Loan Trustees shall be personally liable to any holder of such Leased Aircraft Notes for amounts payable under such Leased Aircraft Notes, or, except as provided in the Indentures relating thereto in the case of the Owner Trustees and the Loan Trustees, for any liability under such Indentures. Except in the circumstances referred to above, all amounts payable under any Leased Aircraft Notes (other than payments made in connection with an optional redemption or purchase by the related Owner Trustee or the related Owner Participant) will be made only from (i) the assets subject to the lien of the applicable Indenture with respect to such Aircraft or the income and proceeds received by the related Loan Trustee therefrom (including rent payable by Continental under the related Lease) or (ii) if so provided in the related Prospectus Supplement, the applicable Liquidity Facility.

With respect to the Leased Aircraft Notes, except as otherwise provided in the applicable Indenture, no Owner Trustee shall be personally liable for any amount payable or for any statements, representations, warranties, agreements or obligations under any such Indenture or under such Leased Aircraft Notes except for its own willful misconduct or gross negligence. None of the Owner Participants shall have any duty or responsibility under the Leased Aircraft

Indentures or under such Leased Aircraft Notes to the related Loan Trustee or to any holder of any such Leased Aircraft Note.

Continental's obligations under each Owned Aircraft Indenture and under the Owned Aircraft Notes will be general obligations of Continental.

DEFEASANCE OF THE INDENTURES AND THE EQUIPMENT NOTES IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the applicable Indenture provides that the obligations of the related Loan Trustee and, with respect to any Leased Aircraft Notes, the related Owner Trustee or, with respect to any Owned Aircraft Notes, Continental under the applicable Indenture shall be deemed to have been discharged and paid in full (except for certain obligations, including the obligations to register the transfer or exchange of Equipment Notes, to replace stolen, lost, destroyed or mutilated Equipment Notes and to maintain paying agencies and hold money for payment in trust) on the 91st day after the date of irrevocable deposit with the related Loan Trustee of money or certain obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof the payment of which is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States which, through the payment of principal and interest in respect thereof in accordance with their terms, will provide money in an aggregate amount sufficient to pay when due (including as a consequence of redemption in respect of which notice is given on or prior to the date of such deposit) principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all Equipment Notes issued thereunder in accordance with the terms of such Indenture. Such discharge may occur only if, among other things, there has been published by the Internal Revenue Service a ruling to the effect that holders of such Equipment Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same time as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred.

Upon such defeasance, or upon payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all Equipment Notes issued under any Indenture on the maturity date therefor or deposit with the applicable Loan Trustee of money sufficient therefor no earlier than one year prior to the date of such maturity, the holders of such Equipment Notes will have no beneficial interest in or other rights with respect to the related Aircraft or other assets subject to the lien of such Indenture and such lien shall terminate.

ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS BY CONTINENTAL

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement with respect to Leased Aircraft, upon the exercise by Continental of any purchase options it may have under the related Lease prior to the end of the term of such Lease, Continental may assume on a full recourse basis all of the obligations of the Owner Trustee (other than its obligations in its individual capacity) under the Indenture with respect to such Aircraft, including the obligations to make payments in respect of the related Leased Aircraft Notes. In such event, certain relevant provisions of the related Lease, including (among others) provisions relating to maintenance, possession and use of the related Aircraft, liens, insurance and events of default will be incorporated into such Indenture, and the Leased Aircraft Notes issued under such Indenture will not be redeemed and will continue to be secured by such Aircraft. It is a condition to such assumption that, if such Aircraft is registered under the laws of the United States, an opinion of counsel be delivered at the time of such assumption substantially to the effect that the related Loan Trustee under such Indenture should, immediately following such assumption, be entitled to the benefits of Section 1110 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to such Aircraft (including the engines related thereto), but such opinion need not be delivered to the extent that the benefits of such Section 1110 are not available to the Loan Trustee with respect to such Aircraft or any engine related thereto immediately prior to such assumption.

LIQUIDITY FACILITY

The related Prospectus Supplement may provide that one or more payments of interest on the related Equipment Notes of one or more series or distributions made by the Trustee of the related Trust will be supported by a Liquidity Facility issued by an institution identified in the related Prospectus Supplement. Unless otherwise provided in the related Prospectus Supplement, the provider of the Liquidity Facility will have a senior claim upon the assets securing the Equipment Notes.

INTERCREDITOR ISSUES

Equipment Notes may be issued in different Classes, which means that the Equipment Notes may have different payment priorities even though they are issued by the same borrower and relate to the same Aircraft. In such event, the related Prospectus Supplement will describe the priority of distributions among such Equipment Notes (and any Liquidity Facilities therefor), the ability of any Class to exercise and/or enforce any or all remedies with respect to the related Aircraft (and, if the Equipment Notes are Leased Aircraft Notes, the Lease related thereto) and certain other intercreditor terms and provisions.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

GENERAL

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the following summary describes the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences to Certificateholders of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Certificates offered hereby and in the opinion of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, special tax counsel to Continental ("Tax Counsel"), is accurate in all material respects with respect to the matters discussed therein. Except as otherwise specified, the summary is addressed to beneficial owners of Certificates ("U.S. Certificateholders") that are citizens or residents of the United States, corporations, partnerships or other entities created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state therein, or estates or trusts the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source ("U.S. Persons") that will hold the Certificates as capital assets. This summary does not address the tax treatment of U.S. Certificateholders that may be subject to special tax rules, such as banks, insurance companies, dealers in securities or commodities, tax-exempt entities, holders that will hold Certificates as part of a straddle or holders that have a "functional currency" other than the U.S. Dollar, nor does it address the tax treatment of U.S.

Certificateholders that do not acquire Certificates at the initial offering price as part of the initial offering thereof. The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase Certificates. This summary does not describe any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or taxing jurisdiction other than the United States.

The summary is based upon the tax laws and practice of the United States as in effect on the date of this Prospectus, as well as judicial and administrative interpretations thereof (in final or proposed form) available on or before such date. All of the foregoing are subject to change, which change could apply retroactively. Prospective investors should note that no rulings have been sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to the federal income tax consequences, discussed below, and no assurances can be given that the IRS will not take contrary positions. The Trusts are not indemnified for any federal income taxes that may be imposed upon them, and the imposition of any such taxes on a Trust could result in a reduction in the amounts available for distribution to the Certificateholders of such Trust. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE CERTIFICATES.

TAX STATUS OF THE TRUSTS

In the opinion of Tax Counsel, each Trust will be classified as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

TAXATION OF CERTIFICATEHOLDERS GENERALLY

A U.S. Certificateholder will be treated as owning its pro rata undivided interest in each of the Equipment Notes and any other property held by the related Trust. Accordingly, each U.S. Certificateholder's share of interest paid on the Equipment Notes will be taxable as ordinary income, as it is paid or accrued, in accordance with such U.S. Certificateholder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and a U.S. Certificateholder's share of premium, if any, paid on redemption of an Equipment Note will be treated as capital gain. In the event that a Trust is supported by a Liquidity Facility, any amounts received by the Trust under the Liquidity Facility with respect to unpaid interest will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as having the same characteristics as the payments they replace. If Continental were to assume an Owner Trust's obligations under Leased Aircraft Notes, such assumption would be treated for federal income tax purposes as a taxable exchange of such Leased Aircraft Notes, resulting in recognition of gain or loss by the U.S. Certificateholder.

Each U.S. Certificateholder will be entitled to deduct, consistent with its method of accounting, its pro rata share of fees and expenses paid or incurred by the corresponding Trust as provided in Section 162 or 212 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Certain fees and expenses, including fees paid to the Trustee and the provider of the Liquidity Facility (if applicable), will be borne by parties other than the Certificateholders. It is possible that such fees and expenses will be treated as constructively received by the Trust, in which event a U.S. Certificateholder will be required to include in income and will be entitled to deduct its pro rata share of such fees and expenses. If a U.S. Certificateholder is an individual, estate or trust, the deduction for such holder's share of such fees or expenses will be allowed only to the extent that all of such holder's miscellaneous itemized deductions, including such holder's share of such fees and expenses, exceed 2% of such holder's adjusted gross income. In addition, in the case of U.S. Certificateholders who are individuals, certain otherwise allowable itemized deductions will be subject generally to additional limitations on itemized deductions under applicable provisions of the Code.

EFFECT OF SUBORDINATION OF SUBORDINATED CERTIFICATEHOLDERS

In the event that any Trust (such Trust being a "Subordinated Trust" and the related Certificates being "Subordinated Certificates") is subordinated in right of payment to any other Trust and the Subordinated Trust receives less than the full amount of the receipts of interest, principal or premium paid with respect to the Equipment Notes held by it (any shortfall in such receipts being the "Shortfall Amounts") because of the subordination of such Trust, the corresponding owners of beneficial interests in the Subordinated Certificates (the "Subordinated Certificateholders") would probably be treated for federal income tax purposes as if they had (1) received as distributions their full share of such receipts, (2) paid over to the relevant preferred class of Certificateholders an amount equal to their share of such Shortfall Amount, and (3) retained the right to reimbursement of such amounts to the extent of future amounts payable to such Subordinated Certificateholders with respect to such Shortfall Amount.

Under this analysis, (1) Subordinated Certificateholders incurring a Shortfall Amount would be required to include as current income any interest or other income of the corresponding Subordinated Trust that was a component of the Shortfall Amount, even though such amount was in fact paid to the relevant preferred class of Certificateholders, (2) a loss would only be allowed to such Subordinated Certificateholders when their right to receive reimbursement of such Shortfall Amount becomes worthless (I.E., when it becomes clear that funds will not be available from any source to reimburse such loss), and (3) reimbursement of such Shortfall Amount prior to such a claim of worthlessness would not be taxable income to Subordinated Certificateholders because such amount was previously included in income. These results should not significantly affect the inclusion of income for Subordinated Certificateholders on the accrual method of accounting, but could accelerate inclusion of income to Subordinated Certificateholders on the cash method of accounting by, in effect, placing them on the accrual method.

ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT

The Equipment Notes may be issued with original issue discount ("OID"). The Prospectus Supplement will state whether any Equipment Notes to be held by the related Trust will be issued with OID. Generally, a holder of a debt instrument issued with OID that is not DE MINIMIS must include such OID in income for federal income tax purposes as it accrues, in advance of the receipt of the cash attributable to such income, under a method that takes into account the compounding of interest.

SALE OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF THE CERTIFICATES

Upon the sale, exchange or other disposition of a Certificate, a U.S. Certificateholder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the disposition (other than any amount attributable to accrued interest which will be taxable as ordinary income) and the U.S. Certificateholder's adjusted tax basis in the related Equipment Notes and any other property held by the corresponding Trust. Any gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss to the extent attributable to property held by the Trust for more than one year. In the case of individuals, estates, and trusts, the maximum rate of tax on long-term capital gains generally is 20%, except that a maximum rate of 28% applies to property held for more than one year but not more than 18 months.

FOREIGN CERTIFICATEHOLDERS

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, payments of principal and interest on the Equipment Notes to, or on behalf of, any beneficial owner of a Certificate that is not a U.S. Person (a "Non-U.S. Certificateholder") will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax; provided, in the case of interest, that (i) such Non-U.S. Certificateholder does not actually or constructively own 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of the stock of an Owner Participant or Continental, (ii) such Non-U.S. Certificateholder is not a controlled foreign corporation for U.S. tax purposes that is related to an Owner Participant or Continental and (iii) either (A) the Non-U.S. Certificateholder certifies, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a U.S. Person and provides its name and address or (B) a securities clearing organization, bank or other financial institution that holds customers' securities in the ordinary course of its trade or business (a "financial institution") and holds the Certificate certifies, under penalties of perjury, that such statement has been received from the Non-U.S. Certificateholder by it or by another financial institution and furnishes the payor with a copy thereof. Regulations proposed by the Internal Revenue Service on April 15, 1996, if finalized in their current form, would modify the certification requirements described in clause (iii) with respect to certain payments after December 31, 1997.

Any capital gain realized upon the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a Certificate or upon receipt of premium paid on an Equipment Note by a Non-U.S. Certificateholder will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding taxes if (i) such gain is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the Non-U.S. Certificateholder and (ii) in the case of an individual, such Non-U.S. Certificateholder is not present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition or receipt.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING

Payments made on the Certificates and proceeds from the sale of Certificates will not be subject to a backup withholding tax of 31% unless, in general, the Certificateholder fails to comply with certain reporting procedures or otherwise fails to establish an exemption from such tax under applicable provisions of the Code.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the Certificates may, subject to certain legal restrictions, be purchased and held by an employee benefit plan (a "Plan") subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), or an individual retirement account or an employee benefit plan subject to section 4975 of the Code. A fiduciary of a Plan must determine that the purchase and holding of a Certificate is consistent with its fiduciary duties under ERISA and does not result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction as defined in section 406 of ERISA or section 4975 of the Code. Employee benefit plans which are governmental plans (as defined in section 3(32) of ERISA) and certain church plans (as defined in section 3(33) of ERISA) are not subject to Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the Code. The Certificates may, subject to certain legal restrictions, be purchased and held by such plans.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Certificates may be sold to one or more underwriters for public offering and sale by them or to investors or other persons directly or through one or more dealers or agents. Any such underwriter, dealer or agent involved in the offer and sale of the Certificates will be named in an applicable Prospectus Supplement.

The Certificates may be sold at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed, or from time to time at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. Dealer trading may take place in certain of the Certificates, including Certificates not listed on any securities exchange. Continental does not intend to apply for listing of the Certificates on a national securities exchange. Continental also may, from time to time, authorize underwriters acting as Continental's agents to offer and sell the Certificates upon the terms and conditions as shall be set forth in any Prospectus Supplement. In connection with the sale of Certificates, underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation from Continental in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions and may also receive commissions from purchasers of Certificates for whom they may act as agent. Underwriters may sell Certificates to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions (which may be changed from time to time) from the purchasers for whom they may act as agent.

If a dealer is used directly by Continental in the sale of Certificates in respect of which this Prospectus is delivered, such Certificates will be sold to the dealer, as principal. The dealer may then resell such Certificates to the public at varying prices to be determined by such dealer at the time of resale. Any such dealer and the terms of any such sale will be set forth in the Prospectus Supplement relating thereto.

Certificates may be offered and sold through agents designated by Continental from time to time. Any such agent involved in the offer or sale of the Certificates in respect of which this Prospectus is delivered will be named in, and any commissions payable by Continental to such agent will be set forth in, the applicable Prospectus Supplement. Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, any such agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

Offers to purchase Certificates may be solicited directly by Continental and sales thereof may be made by Continental directly to institutional investors or others who may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act with respect to any resale thereof. The terms of any such sales will be described in the Prospectus Supplement relating thereto. Except as set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, no director, officer or employee of Continental will solicit or receive a commission in connection with direct sales by Continental of the Certificates, although such persons may respond to inquiries by potential purchasers and perform ministerial and clerical work in connection with any such direct sales.

Any underwriting compensation paid by Continental to underwriters, dealers or agents in connection with the offering of Certificates, and any discounts, concessions or commissions allowed by underwriters to participating dealers, will be set forth in an applicable Prospectus Supplement. Underwriters, dealers and agents participating in the distribution of the Certificates may be deemed to be underwriters, and any discounts and commissions received by them and any profit realized by them on resale of the Certificates may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Underwriters, dealers and agents may be entitled, under agreements with Continental, to indemnification against and contribution toward certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to reimbursement by Continental for certain expenses.

Underwriters, dealers and agents may engage in transactions with, or perform services for, Continental and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business.

If so indicated in an applicable Prospectus Supplement and subject to existing market conditions, Continental will authorize dealers acting as Continental's agents to solicit offers by certain institutions to purchase Certificates at the public offering price set forth in such Prospectus Supplement pursuant to Delayed Delivery Contracts ("Contracts") providing for payment and delivery on the date or dates stated in such Prospectus Supplement. Each Contract will be for an amount not less than, and the aggregate principal amount of Certificates sold pursuant to Contracts shall not be less nor more than, the respective amounts stated in such Prospectus Supplement. Institutions with whom Contracts, when authorized, may be made include commercial and savings banks, insurance companies, pension funds, investment companies, educational and charitable institutions and other institutions, but will in all cases be subject to the approval of Continental. Contracts will not be subject to any conditions except the purchase by an institution of the Certificates covered by its Contracts shall not at the time of delivery be prohibited under the laws of any jurisdiction in the United States to which such institution is subject. A commission indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement will be granted to underwriters and agents soliciting purchases of Certificates pursuant to Contracts accepted by Continental. Agents and underwriters will have no responsibility in respect of the delivery or performance of Contracts.

If an underwriter or underwriters are utilized in the sale of any Certificates, the applicable Prospectus Supplement will contain a statement as to the intention, if any, of such underwriters at the date of such Prospectus Supplement to make a market in the Certificates. No assurances can be given that there will be a market for the Certificates.

The place and time of delivery for the Certificates in respect of which this Prospectus is delivered will be set forth in the applicable Prospectus Supplement.

LEGAL OPINIONS

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, the validity of the Certificates will be passed upon for Continental by Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, New York, New York. Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP will rely on the opinion of counsel for the Trustee as to certain matters relating to the authorization, execution and delivery of such Certificates by, and the valid and binding effect thereof on, such Trustee.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the Company will indemnify each of its directors and officers to the full extent permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware and may indemnify certain other persons as authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "GCL"). Section 145 of the GCL provides as follows:

"(a) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this section (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b). Such determination shall be made (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (2) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the board of directors deems appropriate.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

(g) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to "the corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) For purposes of this section, references to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the corporation" as referred to in this section.

(j) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(k) The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification brought under this section or under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Court of Chancery may summarily determine a corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorneys' fees)".

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company also limit the personal liability of directors to the Company and its stockholders for monetary damages resulting from certain breaches of the directors' fiduciary duties. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Company provides as follows:

"No Director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the GCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the Director derived any improper personal benefit. If the GCL is amended . . . to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the GCL, as so amended".

The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance.

ITEM 16. EXHIBITS

Reference is made to the Exhibit Index which immediately precedes the exhibits filed with this Registration Statement, which is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant have been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of such registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized in the City of Houston, State of Texas, on August 28, 1997.

Re: Continental Airlines, Inc.
Registration Statement on Form S-3

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as your counsel in connection with the above-referenced Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the "Registration Statement") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), with respect to pass through certificates (the "Pass Through Certificates") expected to be issued by one or more trusts to be formed by Continental Airlines, Inc. (the "Company"). Such trusts are expected to acquire certain equipment notes relating to aircraft to be leased or owned by the Company. The Pass Through Certificates are expected to be issued and sold by the Company from time to time pursuant to Rule 415 under the Act for an aggregate initial offering price not to exceed $1,850,000,000 or the equivalent thereof in one or more foreign currencies or composite currencies.

The Pass Through Certificates (the "Certificates") will be issued in one or more series under separate Pass Through Trust Agreements entered into between the Company and Wilmington Trust Company, the trustee thereunder (each, a "Pass Through Trust Agreement"), the form of which has been filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement, and one or more supplements (each, a "Trust Supplement") relating to each such series.

We have examined the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company and the form of the Pass Through Trust Agreement. In addition, we have examined, and have relied as to matter of fact upon, originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such corporate records, agreements, documents and other instruments and such certificates or comparable documents of public officials and of officers and representatives of the Company, and have made such other and further investigations as we have deemed relevant and necessary as a basis for the opinion hereinafter set forth.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, with respect to each series of Pass Through Certificates, when (i) the applicable provisions of the Act and such "Blue Sky" or state securities laws as may be applicable shall have been complied with, (ii) each Pass Through Trust Agreement shall have been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by the Company to the trustee thereunder, (iii) the Trust Supplement relating to each such series has been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by the Company to such trustee, (iv) the Board of Directors of the Company has taken all necessary corporate action to approve the terms of the offering of such series of Pass Through Certificates and related matters and (v) the Pass Through Certificates of such series have been duly executed, authenticated, issued and delivered in accordance with the provisions of the related Pass Through Trust Agreement, the related Trust Supplement and the applicable definitive purchase, underwriting or similar agreement approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and upon payment of the consideration therefor provided for therein, such series of Pass Through Certificates will be legally issued and binding obligations of the Company.

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York, and we do not express any opinion herein concerning any law other than the law of the State of New York, the federal law of the United States and the Delaware General Corporation Law.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to said Registration Statement and we further consent to the use of our name in the Registration Statement under the caption "Legal Opinions". In giving this consent, we do not thereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

Very truly yours,

/s/ HUGHES HUBBARD & REED LLP
