

The following statement will be sent to media in Guam and Micronesia beginning on May 4, 2010:

This transaction brings together two of the industry's leading airlines to create a strong global competitor providing expanded reach and superior service to customers, enhanced growth prospects for employees, and a platform for increased profitability and long-term value for shareholders.

The combined company will have greater scale and scope and will be well positioned to succeed in today's dynamic and highly competitive global and domestic aviation marketplace.

The two airlines have the most complementary networks of any U.S. carriers, with minimal domestic and no international route overlaps.

The combined carrier will have 10 hubs, including Guam as a Pacific hub for the combined airline.

Continental and Guam have a long and deep partnership. Guam is important to us and we recognize that we are important to Guam. Guam is now one of 10 hubs in our world-class airline. It's an important part of our network and will remain an important part of our network going forward. The merger should provide new opportunities for Guam by providing access to a broader and deeper global network.

We will maintain a significant presence in Guam.

In terms of the expected impact to our employees, we believe the effect of the merger on front-line employees will be minimal, with the reductions coming principally from retirements, attrition and voluntary programs.

Long-term, we expect co-workers will benefit from improved long-term career opportunities and enhanced job stability by being part of a larger, operationally and financially stronger, and more geographically diverse carrier better able to compete successfully in the global marketplace.
