UNITED REPORTS NOVEMBER 2012 OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

CHICAGO, Dec. 10, 2012 – United Continental Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: UAL) today reported November 2012 combined operational results for its airline units.

UAL's consolidated traffic (revenue passenger miles) in November 2012 decreased 2.3 percent and consolidated capacity (available seat miles) decreased 2.6 percent versus November 2011. UAL's consolidated load factor in November 2012 increased 0.3 points compared to November 2011.

UAL's November 2012 consolidated passenger revenue per available seat mile (PRASM) decreased an estimated 1.0 to 2.0 percent compared to November 2011.

Superstorm Sandy reduced revenue by approximately $50 million and reduced consolidated PRASM by approximately 2 points year-over-year in November, which is included in the PRASM estimate above.

About United

United Airlines and United Express operate an average of 5,557 flights a day to 378 airports on six continents from the airline's hubs in Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Guam, Houston, Los Angeles, New York/Newark, San Francisco, Tokyo and Washington, D.C. In 2011, United carried more traffic than any other airline in the world, and operated more than two million flights carrying 142 million passengers. United is upgrading its cabins with more flat-bed seats in first and business class and more extra-legroom economy-class seating than any other airline in North America. United now has 180 airplanes featuring DIRECTV®, offering customers more live television access than any other airline in the world. United operates nearly 700 mainline aircraft and has orders for more than 270 new aircraft deliveries through 2022. In 2012, United was the first North American airline to take delivery of new Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft. United was rated the world's most admired airline on FORTUNE magazine's 2012 airline-industry list of the World's Most Admired Companies. Readers of Global Traveler magazine have voted United's MileagePlus program the best frequent flyer program for eight consecutive years. United is a founding member of Star Alliance, which provides service to 193
